

Summer Camp Counselors

$16 per hour or $18 per hour if Lifeguard Certified

Amazing opportunity for high school and college students, aspiring or current teachers, or anyone who loves working with kids! Located in the beautiful village of Stowe, Vermont, Stowe Rec Summer Camp offers children the quintessential day camp experience. Our summer camp serves kids in K-9th grade. Each group of campers is led by 2-3 counselors. Stowe Parks & Recreation is currently seeking energetic, team oriented, and motivated individuals who have experience working with children or in a recreational field.

As a camp counselor you will have the opportunity to foster children's learning and growth while providing quality, fun-filled programming. Applicants are responsible for the overall safety, support, program implementation, and logistics for a group of campers throughout the summer camp season. Individuals hired will be a positive role model, have a willingness to take initiative, and possess an encouraging attitude.

Essential functions include:

- The counselor should have a background and experience in the kinds of activities associated with summer recreation (i.e. sports and games, arts and crafts, swimming) supervisory knowledge of different aged group children as well as instruction and teaching techniques.
- The counselor will be responsible for a certain age group and must assume all supervisory responsibilities associated as such.
- The health and wellbeing of the participants shall be the guiding principle for all activities and actions that take place.
- The counselor must have the skills to function within the larger group and keep the ideals of the entire program foremost in their mind.

Shifts are Monday-Friday and generally from 7am-3pm or 8am-4pm, approximately 8 hours per day. First Aid/CPR/AED and Lifeguard certifications are preferred, though training may be provided. Season is from June 2023- August 2023. Join us for a delightful and fulfilling summer season!
